

EVERHART MUSEUM

NATURAL HISTORY, SCIENCE & ART

1901 Mulberry Street, Scranton, PA 18510

[tel] 570-346-7186 [fax] 570-346-0652 [web] www.everhart-museum.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Press Photographs are Available Upon Request

Contact: Lauren White at 570-346-7186

or public.relations@everhart-museum.org

October 2009 Calendar of Events

Scranton – September 4, 2009: The Everhart Museum of Natural History, Science & Art announces its upcoming calendar of events for the month of October 2009. Please note that programs are subject to change and updates to the calendar will be sent accordingly.

Exhibits:

Through December 31, 2009

On Exhibit: Day of the Dead: Art & Culture in the Americas

Day of the Dead (El Día de los Muertos), has its roots in ancient indigenous cultures of Central and South America, and today is celebrated throughout the Americas during the Roman Catholic holidays of All Saints' and All Souls' Days (November 1 & 2). Created by the Everhart Museum with funding assistance from the Pennsylvania Humanities Council, this exclusive exhibit illustrates Day of the Dead as a celebration and remembrance of beloved people in the family and community. Day of the Dead: Art & Culture in the Americas features contemporary art from nationally and internationally recognized artists, traditional folk art, and the Everhart Museum's Pre-Columbian collection. Additional underwriting for this exhibit is provided by The Foley Law Firm and Prudential Retirement. For more information on the exhibit, contact the Everhart Museum at 570-346-7186 or email: general.information@everhart-museum.org.

Through December 31, 2009

On Exhibit: Celebrating Ancestors: Student Art at the Everhart

Celebrating Ancestors: Student Art at the Everhart complements the Everhart's Fall exhibit, Day of the Dead: Art & Culture in the Americas. Area students were invited to create artworks inspired by important people in their lives who have passed away, such as a parent, grandparent, friend or relative; several students also decided to focus on famous and notable public figures. The Day of the Dead is a holiday of remembrance in Latin America, and families all over Central and South America celebrate their ancestors with special displays in the home and at the public cemeteries. Through collaborations such as Celebrating Ancestors: Student Art at the Everhart, the Everhart Museum nurtures creativity and showcases artistic excellence in the community. For more information on the exhibit, contact the Everhart Museum at 570-346-7186 or email: general.information@everhart-museum.org.

Through December 31, 2009

On Exhibit: Isaiah's Corner: ¡Fiesta Fun with Calaveras!

Step into Latin America culture in Isaiah's Corner: ¡Fiesta Fun with Calaveras! Children of all ages are invited to learn about Day of the Dead, a Latino holiday of remembrance when families celebrate their ancestors with special displays in the home and in public places. In Isaiah's Corner, the Museum's hands-on gallery, visitors can build ofrendas, make skeleton masks and dolls, creating tissue paper flowers and papel picado (punched paper) designs, and calculating in Mayan math! Please note that adult guidance is required. For more information, contact the Everhart Museum at 570-346-7186 or email: general.information@everhart-museum.org.

Through December 31, 2009

On Exhibit: Permanent Galleries

The permanent galleries of the Everhart Museum feature displays of African and Ancient Art, the dinosaur and bird exhibits, rocks & minerals, and installations of American folk art, decorative art, and fine art. The Everhart Museum is open Thursday through Monday through December 31st. Museum hours are Thurs., Fri., & Mon., Noon to 4:00 pm; Sat. 10:00 am to 5:00 pm, and Sun. Noon to 5:00 pm. Admission is $5/adults, $3/students & seniors; $2/children 6-12, and free to Everhart Museum members. For more information, contact the Everhart Museum at 570-346-7186 or email: general.information@everhart-museum.org.

-more-

Public Programs:

October 1, 2009

“Fiesta at the Everhart Museum,” 6:00 to 8:00 pm

The Everhart invites you and your friends for “Fiesta at the Everhart Museum,” a benefit preview featuring the Museum’s new exhibitions Day of the Dead: Art & Culture in the Americas and Celebrating Ancestors: Student Art at the Everhart. The evening promises great food, drink and an opportunity to preview two fabulous exhibits. This special benefit preview is limited to 220 people and reservations must be prepaid by credit card or check made out to “Everhart Museum.” Cost is $25/person. RSVP by September 25th by calling the Everhart at 570-346-7186 or email general.information@everhart-museum.org. “Fiesta at the Everhart Museum” is sponsored in part by Parente Randolph, LLC.

October 2, 2009

Youth4Art: Afterschool Museum Arts Program, 3:00 to 5:00 pm

Explore, imagine, have fun and create! Youth4Art is a multi-disciplinary program designed for middle school children (5th through 8th grades) as part of part of Lackawanna County’s Arts Engage! initiative. Students work directly with regional artists & utilize the many exhibits throughout the Everhart Museum as inspiration. Through experimentation, students have the opportunity to merge science with art, music with words, and history with today! At the end of the ten-day session, the students’ creative responses, both individually & as a group, will be publicly displayed in the Everhart’s Classroom Gallery. Youth4Art classes take place on Wednesdays and Fridays and are FREE; however pre-registration is required. For more information or to register, contact the Everhart Museum at 570-346-7186 or email education@everhart-museum.org. Applications may also be downloaded from the Everhart’s website: www.everhart-museum.org.

October 3, 2009

PAPIER MÂCHÉ SCULPTURE: With Virginia Sosik, 1:00 to 3:00 pm

Inspired by the colorful art and sculpture of Day of the Dead! Participants will learn all about the papier mâché technique—from armatures, newspaper construction and powdered pulp mix, to decorative painting. This simple, direct medium is light, strong, non-toxic, versatile, and accessible to many ages and skill levels. The class is open to a maximum of 10 adults and teenagers and is suitable for ages 6th grade and up. Younger students with a special artistic interest and focused attention span may contact the teacher for special admission. Parent/child pairs are also a possibility. Pre-registration is required and cost is $90 for the 3-week series (supplies included). For more information or to register, contact the Everhart Museum at 570-346-7186 or email education@everhart-museum.org.

October 4, 2009

Watercolor: Wet and Wild, 12:30 to 3:30 pm

Do you love the fluid look of watercolor and want to learn how it’s done? The basic techniques of this beautiful medium will be explored in a series lessons taught by nationally-recognized and award-winning artist, Renée Emanuel. The focus will be on individual instruction and demonstrations, emphasizing the process, rather than the product in order to “take the pressure off” and give participants room to learn! Both beginners and intermediate painters are welcome to join this 4-week class to be held on Sundays, October 4-25. Cost of the class, suitable for age 16 and older, is $100/person and supplies are not included. For more information or to register, contact the Everhart Museum at 570-346-7186 or email: education@everhart-museum.org.

October 5, 2009

Early Explorations: Looking & Reading Together, 2:00 to 2:45 pm

Join the Everhart Museum, the Lackawanna County Children’s Library, and area artists for a workshop featuring a different book and activity designed to develop pre-literacy skills through drama, art and music. This program is free and suitable for Pre-K children. Pre-registration is required and groups are welcome. Early Explorations is funded in part by PNC Bank. For more information or to register, contact the Everhart Museum at 570-346-7186 or email: education@everhart-museum.org.

October 6, 2009

Calaveras, Catrinas, Kahlo & More!, 4:00 to 5:00 pm

Join us at the Dietrich Theater and experience the traditions, festivities, and fantastic crafts of Latin American culture and the Día de los Muertos! Write, draw, create and explore the celebration, Day of the Dead, in our new series based on the Everhart’s exhibit, Day of the Dead: Art & Culture in the Americas, on display through December 31, 2009. Classes are held at the Dietrich Theater and are free and suitable for grades K-6. Pre-register by calling the Dietrich Theater at 570-996-1500.

- more -

October 7, 2009

Youth4Art: Afterschool Museum Arts Program, 3:00 to 5:00 pm

Explore, imagine, have fun and create! Youth4Art is a multi-disciplinary program designed for middle school children (5th through 8th grades) as part of part of Lackawanna County's Arts Engage! initiative. Students work directly with regional artists & utilize the many exhibits throughout the Everhart Museum as inspiration. Through experimentation, students have the opportunity to merge science with art, music with words, and history with today! At the end of the ten-day session, the students' creative responses, both individually & as a group, will be publicly displayed in the Everhart's Classroom Gallery. Youth4Art classes take place on Wednesdays and Fridays and are FREE; however pre-registration is required. For more information or to register, contact the Everhart Museum at 570-346-7186 or email education@everhart-museum.org. Applications may also be downloaded from the Everhart's website: www.everhart-museum.org.

October 9, 2009

Youth4Art: Afterschool Museum Arts Program, 3:00 to 5:00 pm

Explore, imagine, have fun and create! Youth4Art is a multi-disciplinary program designed for middle school children (5th through 8th grades) as part of part of Lackawanna County's Arts Engage! initiative. Students work directly with regional artists & utilize the many exhibits throughout the Everhart Museum as inspiration. Through experimentation, students have the opportunity to merge science with art, music with words, and history with today! At the end of the ten-day session, the students' creative responses, both individually & as a group, will be publicly displayed in the Everhart's Classroom Gallery. Youth4Art classes take place on Wednesdays and Fridays and are FREE; however pre-registration is required. For more information or to register, contact the Everhart Museum at 570-346-7186 or email education@everhart-museum.org. Applications may also be downloaded from the Everhart's website: www.everhart-museum.org.

October 10, 2009

PAPIER MÂCHÉ SCULPTURE: With Virginia Sosik, 1:00 to 3:00 pm

Inspired by the colorful art and sculpture of Day of the Dead! Participants will learn all about the papier mâché technique—from armatures, newspaper construction and powdered pulp mix, to decorative painting. This simple, direct medium is light, strong, non-toxic, versatile, and accessible to many ages and skill levels. The class is open to a maximum of 10 adults and teenagers and is suitable for ages 6th grade and up. Younger students with a special artistic interest and focused attention span may contact the teacher for special admission. Parent/child pairs are also a possibility. Pre-registration is required and cost is $90 for the 3-week series (supplies included). For more information or to register, contact the Everhart Museum at 570-346-7186 or email education@everhart-museum.org.

October 11, 2009

Watercolor: Wet and Wild, 12:30 to 3:30 pm

Do you love the fluid look of watercolor and want to learn how it's done? The basic techniques of this beautiful medium will be explored in a series lessons taught by nationally-recognized and award-winning artist, Renée Emanuel. The focus will be on individual instruction and demonstrations, emphasizing the process, rather than the product in order to "take the pressure off" and give participants room to learn! Both beginners and intermediate painters are welcome to join this 4-week class to be held on Sundays, October 4-25. Cost of the class, suitable for age 16 and older, is $100/person and supplies are not included. For more information or to register, contact the Everhart Museum at 570-346-7186 or email: education@everhart-museum.org.

October 13, 2009

Calaveras, Catrinas, Kahlo & More!, 4:00 to 5:00 pm

Join us at the Dietrich Theater and experience the traditions, festivities, and fantastic crafts of Latin American culture and the Día de los Muertos! Write, draw, create and explore the celebration, Day of the Dead, in our new series based on the Everhart's exhibit, Day of the Dead: Art & Culture in the Americas, on display through December 31, 2009. Classes are held at the Dietrich Theater and are free and suitable for grades K-6. Pre-register by calling the Dietrich Theater at 570-996-1500.

October 15, 2009

EVERHART READS: At Anthology Books!, 6:00 to 8:00 pm

Meet, discuss, and have fun with fellow readers on the 3rd Thursday of each month. Led by Andrea Talarico of Anthology Books, this fall's book group is inspired by the Everhart's fall exhibition Day of the Dead: Art & Culture in the Americas. Discussion group is free and open to ages 16 and up. Discounted books will be available at Anthology. October's book is "Caramelo" by Sandra Cisneros. For more information, contact the Everhart Museum at 570-346-7186 or email: education@everhart-museum.org.

October 14, 2009

Youth4Art: Afterschool Museum Arts Program, 3:00 to 5:00 pm

Explore, imagine, have fun and create! Youth4Art is a multi-disciplinary program designed for middle school children (5th through 8th grades) as part of part of Lackawanna County's Arts Engage! initiative. Students work directly with regional artists & utilize the many exhibits throughout the Everhart Museum as inspiration. Through experimentation, students have the opportunity to merge science with art, music with words, and history with today! At the end of the ten-day session, the students' creative responses, both individually & as a group, will be publicly displayed in the Everhart's Classroom Gallery. Youth4Art classes take place on Wednesdays and Fridays and are FREE; however pre-registration is required. For more information or to register, contact the Everhart Museum at 570-346-7186 or email education@everhart-museum.org. Applications may also be downloaded from the Everhart's website: www.everhart-museum.org.

- more -

October 16, 2009

Youth4Art: Afterschool Museum Arts Program, 3:00 to 5:00 pm

Explore, imagine, have fun and create! Youth4Art is a multi-disciplinary program designed for middle school children (5th through 8th grades) as part of part of Lackawanna County's Arts Engage! initiative. Students work directly with regional artists & utilize the many exhibits throughout the Everhart Museum as inspiration. Through experimentation, students have the opportunity to merge science with art, music with words, and history with today! At the end of the ten-day session, the students' creative responses, both individually & as a group, will be publicly displayed in the Everhart's Classroom Gallery. Youth4Art classes take place on Wednesdays and Fridays and are FREE; however pre-registration is required. For more information or to register, contact the Everhart Museum at 570-346-7186 or email education@everhart-museum.org. Applications may also be downloaded from the Everhart's website: www.everhart-museum.org.

October 17, 2009

PAPIER MÂCHÉ SCULPTURE: With Virginia Sosik, 1:00 to 3:00 pm

Inspired by the colorful art and sculpture of Day of the Dead! Participants will learn all about the papier mâché technique—from armatures, newspaper construction and powdered pulp mix, to decorative painting. This simple, direct medium is light, strong, non-toxic, versatile, and accessible to many ages and skill levels. The class is open to a maximum of 10 adults and teenagers and is suitable for ages 6th grade and up. Younger students with a special artistic interest and focused attention span may contact the teacher for special admission. Parent/child pairs are also a possibility. Pre-registration is required and cost is $90 for the 3-week series (supplies included). For more information or to register, contact the Everhart Museum at 570-346-7186 or email education@everhart-museum.org.

October 17, 2009

EverhART 101, 10:00 am to Noon

This fall, join in the Día de los Muertos celebration at the Everhart Museum! The Everhart and Keystone College team up to bring you hands-on instruction and lots of fun! Each class journeys through a different aspect of the Everhart's latest exhibit Day of the Dead: Art & Culture in the Americas, and a new art medium, giving children experience in painting, writing, sculpture, drawing, and mixed media. Classes are suitable for grades K-5 and cost $5/class. Pre-registration required. For more information or to register, contact the Everhart Museum at 570-346-7186 or email: education@everhart-museum.org.

October 17, 2009

Early Explorations: Looking & Reading Together, 2:00 to 2:45 pm

Join the Everhart Museum, the Lackawanna County Children's Library, and area artists for a workshop featuring a different book and activity designed to develop pre-literacy skills through drama, art and music. This program is free and suitable for Pre-K children. Pre-registration is required and groups are welcome. Early Explorations is funded in part by PNC Bank. For more information or to register, contact the Everhart Museum at 570-346-7186 or email: education@everhart-museum.org.

October 18, 2009

Watercolor: Wet and Wild, 12:30 to 3:30 pm

Do you love the fluid look of watercolor and want to learn how it's done? The basic techniques of this beautiful medium will be explored in a series lessons taught by nationally-recognized and award-winning artist, Renée Emanuel. The focus will be on individual instruction and demonstrations, emphasizing the process, rather than the product in order to "take the pressure off" and give participants room to learn! Both beginners and intermediate painters are welcome to join this 4-week class to be held on Sundays, October 4-25. Cost of the class, suitable for age 16 and older, is $100/person and supplies are not included. For more information or to register, contact the Everhart Museum at 570-346-7186 or email: education@everhart-museum.org.

October 20, 2009

Calaveras, Catrinas, Kahlo & More!, 4:00 to 5:00 pm

Join us at the Dietrich Theater and experience the traditions, festivities, and fantastic crafts of Latin American culture and the Día de los Muertos! Write, draw, create and explore the celebration, Day of the Dead, in our new series based on the Everhart's exhibit, Day of the Dead: Art & Culture in the Americas, on display through December 31, 2009. Classes are held at the Dietrich Theater and are free and suitable for grades K-6. Pre-register by calling the Dietrich Theater at 570-996-1500.

October 21, 2009

Youth4Art: Afterschool Museum Arts Program, 3:00 to 5:00 pm

Explore, imagine, have fun and create! Youth4Art is a multi-disciplinary program designed for middle school children (5th through 8th grades) as part of part of Lackawanna County's Arts Engage! initiative. Students work directly with regional artists & utilize the many exhibits throughout the Everhart Museum as inspiration. Through experimentation, students have the opportunity to merge science with art, music with words, and history with today! At the end of the ten-day session, the students' creative responses, both individually & as a group, will be publicly displayed in the Everhart's Classroom Gallery. Youth4Art classes take place on Wednesdays and Fridays and are FREE; however pre-registration is required. For more information or to register, contact the Everhart Museum at 570-346-7186 or email education@everhart-museum.org. Applications may also be downloaded from the Everhart's website: www.everhart-museum.org.

- more -

October 23, 2009

Youth4Art: Afterschool Museum Arts Program, 3:00 to 5:00 pm

Explore, imagine, have fun and create! Youth4Art is a multi-disciplinary program designed for middle school children (5th through 8th grades) as part of part of Lackawanna County's Arts Engage! initiative. Students work directly with regional artists & utilize the many exhibits throughout the Everhart Museum as inspiration. Through experimentation, students have the opportunity to merge science with art, music with words, and history with today! At the end of the ten-day session, the students' creative responses, both individually & as a group, will be publicly displayed in the Everhart's Classroom Gallery. Youth4Art classes take place on Wednesdays and Fridays and are FREE; however pre-registration is required. For more information or to register, contact the Everhart Museum at 570-346-7186 or email education@everhart-museum.org. Applications may also be downloaded from the Everhart's website: www.everhart-museum.org.

October 24, 2009

EverhART 101, 10:00 am to Noon

This fall, join in the Día de los Muertos celebration at the Everhart Museum! The Everhart and Keystone College team up to bring you hands-on instruction and lots of fun! Each class journeys through a different aspect of the Everhart's latest exhibit Day of the Dead: Art & Culture in the Americas, and a new art medium, giving children experience in painting, writing, sculpture, drawing, and mixed media. Classes are suitable for grades K-5 and cost $5/class. Pre-registration required. For more information or to register, contact the Everhart Museum at 570-346-7186 or email: education@everhart-museum.org.

October 24, 2009

Start Right with Acrylics, 1:00 to 4:00 pm

Interested in working with acrylics? This 5-week workshop beginning Saturday, October 24 is for anyone interested in learning about the materials and equipment, as well as preparing surfaces and setting up the palette. Award-winning artist Bill Teitsworth, will be demonstrating the "block-in and overpainting" method, and participants can expect plenty of individual instruction and demonstrations. Cost of the 5-week class, suitable for age 16 and older, is $150/person and does not include supplies. For more information or to register, contact the Everhart Museum at 570-346-7186 or email: education@everhart-museum.org.

October 25, 2009

Watercolor: Wet and Wild, 12:30 to 3:30 pm

Do you love the fluid look of watercolor and want to learn how it's done? The basic techniques of this beautiful medium will be explored in a series lessons taught by nationally-recognized and award-winning artist, Renée Emanuel. The focus will be on individual instruction and demonstrations, emphasizing the process, rather than the product in order to "take the pressure off" and give participants room to learn! Both beginners and intermediate painters are welcome to join this 4-week class to be held on Sundays, October 4-25. Cost of the class, suitable for age 16 and older, is $100/person and supplies are not included. For more information or to register, contact the Everhart Museum at 570-346-7186 or email: education@everhart-museum.org.

October 27, 2009

Calaveras, Catrinas, Kahlo & More!, 4:00 to 5:00 pm

Join us at the Dietrich Theater and experience the traditions, festivities, and fantastic crafts of Latin American culture and the Día de los Muertos! Write, draw, create and explore the celebration, Day of the Dead, in our new series based on the Everhart's exhibit, Day of the Dead: Art & Culture in the Americas, on display through December 31, 2009. Classes are held at the Dietrich Theater and are free and suitable for grades K-6. Pre-register by calling the Dietrich Theater at 570-996-1500.

October 28, 2009

Youth4Art: Afterschool Museum Arts Program, 3:00 to 5:00 pm

Explore, imagine, have fun and create! Youth4Art is a multi-disciplinary program designed for middle school children (5th through 8th grades) as part of part of Lackawanna County's Arts Engage! initiative. Students work directly with regional artists & utilize the many exhibits throughout the Everhart Museum as inspiration. Through experimentation, students have the opportunity to merge science with art, music with words, and history with today! At the end of the ten-day session, the students' creative responses, both individually & as a group, will be publicly displayed in the Everhart's Classroom Gallery. Youth4Art classes take place on Wednesdays and Fridays and are FREE; however pre-registration is required. For more information or to register, contact the Everhart Museum at 570-346-7186 or email education@everhart-museum.org. Applications may also be downloaded from the Everhart's website: www.everhart-museum.org.

October 30, 2009

Youth4Art: Afterschool Museum Arts Program, 3:00 to 5:00 pm

Explore, imagine, have fun and create! Youth4Art is a multi-disciplinary program designed for middle school children (5th through 8th grades) as part of part of Lackawanna County's Arts Engage! initiative. Students work directly with regional artists & utilize the many exhibits throughout the Everhart Museum as inspiration. Through experimentation, students have the opportunity to merge science with art, music with words, and history with today! At the end of the ten-day session, the students' creative responses, both individually & as a group, will be publicly displayed in the Everhart's Classroom Gallery. Youth4Art classes take place on Wednesdays and Fridays and are FREE; however pre-registration is required. For more information or to register, contact the Everhart Museum at 570-346-7186 or email education@everhart-museum.org. Applications may also be downloaded from the Everhart's website: www.everhart-museum.org.

- more -

October 31, 2009

EverhART 101, 10:00 am to Noon

This fall, join in the Día de los Muertos celebration at the Everhart Museum! The Everhart and Keystone College team up to bring you hands-on instruction and lots of fun! Each class journeys through a different aspect of the Everhart's latest exhibit Day of the Dead: Art & Culture in the Americas, and a new art medium, giving children experience in painting, writing, sculpture, drawing, and mixed media. Classes are suitable for grades K-5 and cost $5/class. Pre-registration required. For more information or to register, contact the Everhart Museum at 570-346-7186 or email: education@everhart-museum.org.

October 31, 2009

Start Right with Acrylics, 1:00 to 4:00 pm

Interested in working with acrylics? This 5-week workshop beginning Saturday, October 24 is for anyone interested in learning about the materials and equipment, as well as preparing surfaces and setting up the palette. Award-winning artist Bill Teitsworth, will be demonstrating the "block-in and overpainting" method, and participants can expect plenty of individual instruction and demonstrations. Cost of the 5-week class, suitable for age 16 and older, is $150/person and does not include supplies. For more information or to register, contact the Everhart Museum at 570-346-7186 or email: education@everhart-museum.org.

###

About the Everhart Museum: Founded in 1908, the Everhart Museum of Natural History, Science & Art is the largest general museum in Northeastern Pennsylvania. The Everhart Museum, located in Nay Aug Park in Scranton, is a not-for-profit institution dedicated to the collection, care and display of a diverse array of artifacts, including natural history, science and fine arts. Through our exhibits and programs, the Everhart Museum has become an invaluable regional resource for educational and cultural opportunities. General support for the museum is received from the Lackawanna County Office of Education & Culture, the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts, and the City of Scranton. For more information visit our website at www.everhart-museum.org or contact us at 570-346-7186.

The Everhart Museum is open Thursday through Monday through December 31st. Museum hours are Museum hours are Thurs., Fri., & Mon., Noon to 4:00 pm; Sat. 10:00 am to 5:00 pm, and Sun. Noon to 5:00 pm. Admission is $5/adults, $3/students & seniors; $2/children 6-12, and free to Everhart Museum members. For more information, contact the Museum at 570-346-7186 or email general.information@everhart-museum.org.