NATURAL HISTORY, SCIENCE & ART

call for entries

Exhibit	Community Art at the Everhart – Shiver of Sharks
Date Range	5 July – 8 September 2014
Location	Gallery One
Deadline for Submissions	1 May 2014
Intent to Participate Due	30 March 2014
Message	Complementing the Everhart Museum's Summer exhibit, Sharks! , area students/residents are invited to create artworks inspired by their best conceptions of sharks. Through these collaborative efforts, the Everhart nurtures creativity and showcases artistic excellence in the community.

ELIGIBILITY:

Open to all students and residents in Northeastern Pennsylvania.

DIRECTIVE:

Create an artwork that illustrates what you think a shark, or many sharks, might do when humans are not looking or paying attention. Originality is key, so please be creative!

ENTRY RULES:

- 1) Work will only be accepted in the following media: painting, drawing, printmaking, photography, or mixed media (2-D). No videos, 3-D work, or installation pieces will be accepted.
- 2) Entry dimensions must be no greater than 16" x 20" and must be UN-framed and UN-matted.
- 3) Only original work will be shown. No reproductions will be accepted. Works will not be for sale.
- 4) COMPLETE entry form/ID tag must be submitted attached to the reverse of each original piece. Work submitted without a complete entry form will not be considered for exhibition.
- 5) All pieces must be submitted to the Everhart Museum office, located through the rear entrance of 1901 Mulberry Street, Scranton, PA 18510, between 11 am and 4 pm on 1 May 2014. Work may also be submitted via mail, postmarked by the 1 May deadline.
- 6) All work submitted will be subject to a juried competition for inclusion in the final show. Submitting a work does not guarantee that it will appear in the show.

ENTRY FEE:

There is no entry fee.
