Kathleen Elliot

May 25, 2018 – September 3, 2018

Kathleen Elliot creates intricate plant-inspired plant sculptures, such as imaginary botanicals of flame worked glass. Leaves, fruit, seed pods, and flowers are reimagined in new varieties of organic life. Natural forms appear in unexpected colors and fantastic, new combinations. Through this process, the vocabulary of observed botany becomes a vehicle for personal expression. The exhibition is organized by Katharine T. Carter & Associates.
