The Everhart Museum Hosts Art in Bloom Event

Scranton, PA ----This spring, the Everhart Museum will launch its first annual Art in Bloom. Over a dozen works and objects from the Museum's collection will be showcased alongside floral designs they inspired, creating a visual juxtaposition, that speaks to art and nature lovers alike. This two-day event, held on April 26 and 27, 2019, will include a preview on April 26 at 6:00 - 8:00 pm featuring fresh art-inspired floral arrangements created by local designers and refreshments from POSH. On Saturday, April 27 from 1:00 pm - 4:00 pm, a free public Community Day will offer guests the opportunity to participate in guided workshops, lectures, and tours of the galleries, as well as shop for earth-inspired creations by local fine artists and traditional crafters. Community Days at the Everhart attract over 1,000 patrons ranging in all ages, and give our participating partners a venue to showcase the talent our area has to offer.

The Everhart Museum is initiating a call for applications from professional florists and designers to create floral arrangements for Art in Bloom. Applications are due by the end of day March 22, 2019, and applicants will receive an email confirming participation. Selection will follow on a first-come, first-served basis. Plaques will be awarded in a number of categories. Additionally, we encourage community partners who would be interested in presenting an activity, demonstration, or talk on a specific theme, or acting as a merchandise vendor to complete and return the form found at <http://everhart-museum.org/art-bloom-2019/>.
