Meet Zak Zavada, local Artist for a Guided Walking Tour and a Special Everhart Membership Opportunity

Join the Everhart on Thursday, August 29 for a Meet the Artist night with Zak Zavada. Zak's images in "The Good News" encourage the audience to question their immediate assumptions about their everyday surroundings and promote reflection about the community that we live in.

The evening begins at 6:00 pm with a walking tour of the exhibit "The Good News" followed by an optional guided walking photo tour of Nay Aug Park. All camera types and levels of ability are welcome.

Also, on Thursday, August 29, join or renew an individual museum membership and receive family membership benefits for a full year. All members will receive an additional 10% off (20% total) in the Museum Store.

For more information, contact the programs department at 570.346.7186 ext. 516 or email assistant.programs@everhart-museum.org

The Everhart Museum is open: 12:00pm – 5:00 pm on Thursday, Friday and Monday; 10:00 am – 5:00 pm on Saturday; and 12:00pm – 5:00 p.m. on Sunday. Admission is $7/adults, $5/students & seniors, $3/children 6-12, and free to guests five and under as well as Everhart Museum members. For more information, contact the museum at 570-346-7186 or email general.information@everhartmuseum.org.

About the Everhart Museum: Founded in 1908, the Everhart Museum of Natural History, Science & Art is the largest general museum in Northeastern Pennsylvania. The Everhart Museum, located in Nay Aug Park in Scranton, is a not-for-profit institution dedicated to the collection, care and display of a diverse array of artifacts, including natural history, science, and fine arts. Through our exhibitions and programs, the Everhart Museum has become an invaluable regional resource for educational and cultural opportunities. General support for the museum is received from the Lackawanna County Office of Education & Culture, the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts, and the City of Scranton. For more information on the Museum, visit our website at www.everhart-museum.org or contact us at 570-346-7186.
