

EVERHART INSIDER

FEBRUARY 2022

Everhart Museum Now Open

The Museum reopened Thursday, February 3 following its annual January closure to allow staff to rejuvenate the building's spaces, hone education and events schedules for the upcoming year, perform routine maintenance, and prepare for the unveiling of new temporary exhibitions.

One of the many projects completed in January was the revitalization of the Museum's Main Lobby. In addition to a reimagining of the overall layout of the space, objects from the collection have been added to create a more inviting, engaging reception area.
