Everhart Museum Opens Registration for Museum Adventure Weeks Virtual Summer Program

Scranton, PA - The Everhart Museum has opened registration through May 31 for Museum Adventure Weeks, a fun-filled summer program for children Grades 1–5! The Museum is hosting the program in a safe and convenient virtual format this year. The series includes three week-long sessions, each offering students the opportunity to experience a new topic or theme that explores natural history, science, and art through hands-on activities, virtual tours, and live demonstrations.

Students will have the opportunity to join LIVE virtual classes or work at their own paces using the provided Adventure Toolkits, which include all tools and supplies needed for projects; printed artworks; codes to unlock digital step-by-step instructions; and a schedule of live daily classes and discussions, as well as morning warmups with Museum staff.

This year's programs are as follows:

Nature Week: Nature's Curiosities, July 11–15

Art Week: Exploring Printmaking, July 18–22

Mystery Week: Fiber Art Fun, July 25–29

The cost of registration is $40 for those with a Family Membership or above and $45 for all others.

To learn more about Museums Adventure Weeks and to register, parents and guardians are encouraged to visit <https://everhart-museum.org/museum-adventure-weeks-2022/> or email communityfamilyprograms@everhart-museum.org.

Museum Adventure Weeks is funded in part by the City of Scranton, the Maslow Family Foundation, and the Overlook Estate Foundation.

Founded in 1908, the Everhart Museum of Natural History, Science & Art is the largest general museum in Northeastern Pennsylvania. The Everhart Museum, located in Nay Aug Park in Scranton, is a not-for-profit institution dedicated to the collection, care, and display of a diverse array of artifacts, including natural history, science, and fine arts. Through our exhibitions and programs, the Everhart Museum has become an invaluable regional resource for educational and cultural opportunities. General support for the Museum is received from the Lackawanna County Office of Education & Culture, the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts, and the City of Scranton.

Land Acknowledgement:

We recognize that the Everhart Museum exists on the sacred council ground of the Haudenosaunee. This region represents a place of coming together, peace, and friendship. We respectfully acknowledge this place and honor its significant history.
