EXHIBITIONS

Women in Art on View March 2–Summer 2023

Thunder Clouds by Edith Reynolds

Opening March 2 to coincide with Women's History Month and on view through summer 2023, Women in Art showcases the exceptional artistic legacy of female artists in Northeastern Pennsylvania and beyond, as well as exemplary works depicting women. Bringing together a diverse group of artists, each with their unique style, voice, and vision, the exhibition is a testament to the power of women in art, both as creators and as subjects.

Included in the exhibition are luminaries Priscilla Longshore Garrett, Hope Horn, Violet Oakley, Margaret Oettinger, Edith Reynolds, Elizabeth W. Taylor, and more.

The exhibition is presented in partnership with WVIA
Public Media.

Changing Frequencies:
Works by Jon Carsman
Open through Spring 2023

Winter Shadows by Jon Carsman

Featuring selections from the Everhart's collection as well as pieces from the private collection of F. Charles Petrillo, Esq., Changing Frequencies: Works by Jon Carsman highlights Wilkes-Barre, PA native Jon Carsman's (1944–1987) distinctive silkscreens as well as his acrylic, pen, and watercolor works. Much of his catalog includes pieces inspired by the natural landscape and architecture of Northeastern Pennsylvania, encapsulated in vivid work often described as “super realism” or “new realism.”
