Opening May 18 in observation of the Everhart's 115th anniversary, the Founder's Gallery, a semi-permanent exhibition, traces Dr. Everhart's life from his beginnings in rural Southeastern Pennsylvania, through his career as a surgeon in the Civil War, to his settling in Scranton and establishment of the Museum that bears his name in 1908. His story is told in his own words taken from journal entries; through objects from the Museum's collection, including the many taxidermy specimens he completed; and through rarely seen photos from the Museum's archives.

Everhart 115: Community Day and the Founder's Gallery are made possible by a generous gift of the Munley Family and Munley Law Firm in memory of Robert W. Munley.
