PROGRAMS

Hispanic Heritage Month Workshop Saturday, September 16

Artists Omar Rodriguez and Julia Poncavage

On Saturday, September 16 from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m., the Everhart celebrates Hispanic Heritage Month with artists Omar Rodriguez Jr. and Julia Poncavage. This workshop is designed to give artists of all skill levels the opportunity to explore various types of materials and techniques to develop hyper realistic drawings. Focusing on both life and photo references, this workshop will cover a variety of artistic mediums including graphite pencil, white charcoal, and colored pastels as we study shape replication, form, and still life.

Throughout 2023, the Monthly Workshop series features themed workshops one Saturday per month celebrating special monthly observances. These workshops are great for all ages. Come enjoy arts, crafts, and activities led by guest artists at the Everhart while learning about the importance of the observances they're celebrating.

Cost:

Adults (18+): $10

Seniors (60+): $5

Youth (17 and under): $3

Learn with a Pro: Fiber Arts with Peg McDade Eight-Part Series Starts September 11

The Everhart invites fiber lovers to study needle weaving, knitting, crochet, stitchery, and applique/reverse applique with fiber arts pro Peg McDade! From the inception of your artwork through its completion, she will guide the process in this eight-session series taking place on consecutive Mondays. All supplies are included.

The classes will feature a highly interactive environment of cross-teaching and cross-learning as McDade and participants share knowledge and skills. Throughout the course of the series, you will also learn how to distinguish many types of yarn—silk, cotton, linen, llama, alpaca, bamboo, synthetics, etc.; how to buy and skillfully manipulate quality yarns and textiles; and how to select the right tools for your chosen technique.

Dates:

September 11, 18, and 25

October 2, 9, 16, 23, and 30

Time:

6:30 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.

Cost:

$120 for eight classes
