EVERHART INSIDER NOVEMBER 2023

EVENTS

Everhart Uncorked Saturday, November 4

We're excited to announce that Everhart Uncorked on Saturday, November 4 has sold out, meaning that the success of this fundraiser will ensure that the Everhart's mission stays alive and well! During the enchanting evening of curated food and wine, guests will learn about the art of blending complementary flavors from world-renowned sommelier Kevin Zrally while savoring a delectable four-course dinner crafted by Constantino's Catering and matched with the finest selection of wines.

For more info on the event and a full list of generous sponsors of the event, click here.

Proceeds support the Everhart's mission of providing experiences in natural history, science, and art to people throughout Northeastern Pennsylvania and beyond. Make sure to check in for next year's iteration in September 2024!

Everhart Museum Welcomes New CEO Tim Holmes

The Everhart Museum is excited to announce that Tim Holmes is now the CEO of the Everhart Museum, succeeding Charles Barber who served as Interim CEO since July of 2022.

After 32 years with Times-Shamrock, six years with My City Lending, and decades of community service in Northeastern Pennsylvania, Holmes is excited to take on a new adventure that allows him to tap into all that experience and all those connections. He says he is honored to now be a part of the awesome Everhart Museum team and absolutely humbled to be working within its sacred walls.
