Every Four Years: Looking Back, Looking Forward
Opens at the Everhart Museum November 9

Scranton, PA - In the spirit of America's presidential primary season, the Everhart Museum new exhibition Every Four Years: Looking Back, Looking Forward, which is on view November 9 through March 31, 2024, looks at some of the names and faces of those who have competed in the race for the White House.

Represented in these images, slogans, and symbols are the familiar, forgotten, winners, and losers of past races. Along with campaign materials, the exhibition also includes works from the Everhart collection containing visions and voices offering alternative views on the American political, social, and economic systems by artists such as Will Barnett, Audrey Flack, Robert Indiana, Alex Katz, Jacob Lawrence, and Ed Rusha.

About the Everhart Museum:

Founded in 1908 and celebrating its 115th anniversary in 2023, the Everhart Museum of Natural History, Science & Art is the largest general museum in Northeastern Pennsylvania. The Everhart Museum, located in Nay Aug Park in Scranton, is a nonprofit institution dedicated to the collection, care, and display of a diverse array of objects, including natural history, science, and fine arts. Through its exhibitions and programs, the Everhart Museum has become an invaluable regional resource for educational and cultural opportunities. General support for the Museum is received from the Lackawanna County Office of Education & Culture, the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts, the City of Scranton, and many wonderful friends and donors.

The Everhart Museum is located at 1901 Mulberry Street, Scranton, PA. It has visiting hours of 12:00 p.m.–5:00 p.m. on Thursday and Friday, 10:00 a.m.–5:00 p.m. on Saturday, and 12:00 p.m.–5:00 p.m. on Sunday. For more information and updates on expanded hours, please visit <https://everhart-museum.org> or contact the Museum at 570-346-7186.

Land Acknowledgement:

We recognize that the Everhart Museum exists on the sacred council ground of the Haudenosaunee. This region represents a place of coming together, peace, and friendship.

We respectfully acknowledge this place and honor its significant history.
