RAKIN' IN THE FUN

Welcome the fall season with the third annual Rakin' in the Fun Community Day at the Everhart Museum! Celebrate autumn traditions and vibrant Northeastern Pennsylvania foliage with a day of FREE admission to the Museum 11:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and FREE activities and entertainment 12:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Taking place inside the Museum and outside on the grounds of beautiful Nay Aug Park, Rakin' in the Fun will feature arts and crafts, science demonstrations, live music, and much more! There will also be food for sale.

Honeybee & Harvest Day
at the Greenhouse Project
Sunday, October 6

HONEYBEE & HARVEST DAY

Celebrate honeybees and the role of all pollinators in the harvest season at the fourth annual Honeybee & Harvest Day at the Greenhouse Project in Nay Aug Park!

The day features harvest demonstrations, vendors, food, activities, music by DJ Jason Miller, raffle baskets, and live theatre in the park. Kicking off the day is the annual Honeybee Costume Parade where guests are invited to don their best bee costumes and march behind the Queen Bee to the sounds of The Howard Gardner Charter School Band.

Mead and Greet
with Dan Schreffler
Friday, September 6

MEAD AND GREET

Step into the enchanting world of mead at Mead and Greet, an exclusive event where you can savor a diverse selection of meticulously crafted meads and captivating mead fusions, all made from locally-sourced honey.

Throughout the evening, you'll learn about the science and artistry of mead-making from Dan Schreffler, owner and founder of Space Time Mead & Cider Works and a BJCP Mead Judge.

EXHIBITIONS

Teen Mini Masterpieces*
on View September 6–29

Teen Mini Masterpieces

Join us in celebrating the Lackawanna County Library System's Teen Mini Masterpieces, an exhibition of art by young artists from across Northeastern Pennsylvania. During a free summer program hosted by the library system, young artists created miniature works of art on 4" x 4" canvases.

Peace, Love, and Music on View Through December 29

Guitar signed by singer-songwriter Bob Dylan

To coincide with the dates of the original Woodstock Music Festival in 1969, Peace, Love, and Music looks at the art representing the musical voices and culture of the era.

Through concert posters, ephemera, photography, and artifacts from the 1960s and beyond, this special retrospective takes visitors on a trip back to a groovy time in American history.

Jewish Art: Tradition & Transformation
on View Through October 20

The Holy Man and His Disciples by Siegmund Forst

The Everhart is hosting a special exhibition of work by Jewish artists and work inspired by Judaism.

Organized in collaboration with members of Scranton's Jewish community, the exhibition delves into traditional and modern aspects of Jewish cultures, as well as showcases secular works by Jewish artists.

JEWISH ART

Universal Codes:
Works by Daniel Martin Diaz
Opening October

Atomic Man by Daniel Martin Diaz

Arizona-based artist Daniel Martin Diaz pulls from an eclectic mix of influences including fantastical Mexican religious iconography, mystical votive offerings, the Early Netherlandish painters, Gothic ornamentation, arcane religious sigils and medallions, alchemy, and the symbolism of secret societies to create distinctive paintings.

Much of his work examines the concepts of death and religion, as he seeks to pose questions but not answer them.
