PROGRAMS

Squirrely Creations: Fall Art Fun Saturday, October 12

Squirrely Creations

Join us Saturday, October 12 from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. for Squirrely Creations: Fall Art Fun, a fun and creative fall-themed workshop all about our furry friends, squirrels! Children will learn fascinating facts about these clever creatures, including their habits, how they spend the fall preparing for winter, and their important role in the environment. Then, we'll read along to the children's book The Leaf Thief, which explores themes of change.

Afterwards, kids will tap into their artistic side by drawing a squirrel in a beautiful fall scene. To make their artwork extra special, they'll do leaf rubbings, adding texture and a real autumn feel to their masterpiece.

2025 Scholastic Art Awards Submission Period Now Open

2025 Scholastic Art Awards

The submission period for the 2025 Scholastic Art Awards is open through January 6. The Everhart is proud to once again host the competition for the Northeastern Pennsylvania Region in concert with the Alliance for Young Artists and Writers. The Awards are the nation's longest-running, most prestigious recognition program for creative teens.

Scholastic offers young artists in Grades 7–12, 13 years or older, the opportunity to showcase their creativity on a national platform. The program encourages students to submit original works in a variety of categories for a chance to gain national recognition, and is capstoned by an exhibition of all of the region's Gold Key Award winners in February.

SEPTEMBER IN REVIEW

2024 Scranton Fringe Festival Kickoff at the Everhart September 26–27

Scranton Fringe
Digital Light Show
September 26–27

Silent Disco at the Everhart
Friday, September 27

On September 26 and 27, Scranton Fringe and the Center for the Living City teamed up with the Everhart Museum to present a free digital light show projected on the front of the Everhart as a celebration of the Scranton Fringe Festival's 10th year.

During this two-day event, the Museum's facade was transformed into a mesmerizing canvas with visuals by artist Michael Nasser, all synchronized to music.

Thanks to everyone who attended, and Lackawanna County, Scranton Area Community Foundation, Endeavor Audio & Lighting, and Fancy Parsley Architecture + Design for making this possible.

On September 27, the Everhart and Fringe continued the celebration with the second Silent Disco at the Everhart, directly following the Scranton Fringe Digital Light Show that day.

During this event, music by DJs Simone Daniel, Terry Thompson, and Cowgirl Pills was transmitted simultaneously across multiple channels that the audience chose from as they danced to music in their headphones and enjoyed drinks provided by Groove Brewing.
